

Actual TSDF surfaces at three declared checkpoints

All four G/S conditions · same camera and metric scale within each pair across time · no completion or smoothing

Every panel projects the saved extracted TSDF mesh. The full four-pair display retains coincident h0 results.
Neutral shading indicates illumination, not geometric error; geometry was never completed with a template. Intermediate stages are not new tasks.